Benefits
More instructor-student interaction and more dialogue and friendship with other students than in a typical large, lecture-based class

Ease into your college transition in a supportive environment

Classroom instruction happens in your residence hall, which supports the integration of your social and academic life on campus

I am continually thankful that I began to challenge my initial goals and thoughts about identity early in my college career. This course laid the first steps in setting up a successful first year and overall experience. It really helped me adapt to college life!
