Multicultural Learning Community

Fall Seminar

MLC Seminar (Afro Am 271, lecture 002)
Witte Classroom
Wednesdays 3:30-6pm
with Dr. Carl A. Grant

The purpose of this course is to investigate multiculturalism, the intersectionality of systems of oppression (race, class, gender, dis/ability, sexuality, etc.) and social justice in individual, societal, institutional and structural spaces. The MLC seminar examines multiculturalism from individual, societal, and institutional perspectives. You’ll learn about social justice, and how identities shape an individual’s outlook as well as how this influences society.
