

WISE Seminar Fall 2009

Tuesdays, 5:30 – 7:00, Gordon Commons C-6

Sept 8

Andrea Arpaci-Dusseau, Professor of Computer Science, WISE Faculty Co-Director
“What do Recipes, Robots, and Rubik’s cubes have in common?”

Sept 15

Linda Graham, Professor of Botany, WISE Faculty Co-Director
“Putting lake slime to good use: removing pollution and making biofuel”

Sept 22

Carol Barford, Scientist in the Center for Sustainability and the Global Environment (SAGE)

Sept 29

Kristyn Masters, Assistant Professor of Biomedical Engineering

Oct 6

Anna Pidgeon, Assistant Professor of Forest and Wildlife Ecology

Oct 13

Patricia K. Kokotailo, MD, MPH, Professor of Pediatrics and Associate Dean for Faculty Development and Faculty Affairs, Univ. of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health

Oct 20

Ellen Zweibel, Professor of Astronomy and Physics,
“Magnetic Fields in the Universe”

Oct 27

Dana Vantrease, Ph.D. Student in Computer Science,
“From Rosie the Riveter to Rosie the Researcher: Paving the way for women in graduate school”

Nov 3

Cherene Sherrard-Johnson, Associate Professor in English

Nov 10

Dolly Ledin, Outreach Coordinator for Center for Biology Education, and Helen Klebesadal, Artist and Director of UW System Women’s Studies Consortium, “Blending Art and Science: Paradise Lost? Climate Change in the Northwoods”

Nov 17

Katherine Compton, Assistant Professor of Electrical and Computer Engineering

Nov 24 Thanksgiving Week – No class

Dec 1

Melissa Rosenkranz, Post-Doctoral Fellow in Affective Neuroscience

Dec 8

Wendy Crone, Associate Professor of Engineering Physics